TREADS ON THE TUNDRA

Uff da (old Norwegian saying)--that progressive feed was SUPER!!!! All those who helped did a great job! I know the participants had a good time, and we all thank everyone. That has to be one of the many high spots of the year.

For those who might have missed, we were involved in a mini-parade for the Eielson Homecoming and the local Labor Day Parade. Once again, the community came to us and we were able to respond. For those who may not know, we will provide a passenger seat in the 1988 Golden Days Parade for a high bidder in the Fairbanks Symphony Orchestra's auction.

Next meeting will be (as usual) the 3rd Thursday of the month--but where???

Thursday Oct 15th--time for a relaxing dinner out--treat your best pal--Cocktails at 7, dinner at 7:30 at the North Country Inn, almost to beautiful downtown Fox, on the right. This will be a low key affair, BUT we have top entertainment: Addison Stacy has been promised to play after supper for a sing-along. I am sure George will rise to the occasion too. Be sure to ask for "Nome River Sally". See you there.

The other good news: Ed Christenson has the Annual Christmas party in good hands--stand by for more on this--its going to be a good one, I can tell.

Henry is resting now, but ready to go at the drop of a
