

Puddle Jumper Gazette

Vernon L. Nash Antique Automobile Club

Vol. 1 #9, September 1997

Come to the POKER RUN and COOKOUT

WHEN: Sunday, September 7, 1997
2:00 to 7:00 PM

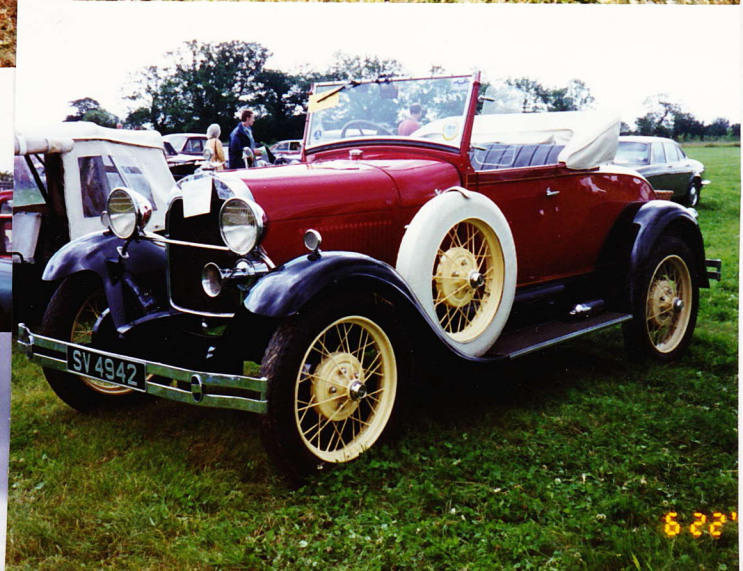

WHERE: Meet for the Poker Run at 2:00 PM at Alaskaland
Cookout will be at or about 4:00 PM at the Fickes'
Riverview Seafood Cookout, 3 mile Badger Rd

WHAT TO BRING: Last Name Ending In:

|       |  |
|-------|--|
| A - F | Desert                                     |
| G - L | Hot Dish (Beans, little meatballs, etc.)   |
| M - R | Salads (potato, pasta, etc.)               |
| S - Z | Salads (garden, veggie plate) and/or Chips |

Meats & Rolls provided by the VLNAACA, Bring your own ??? to drink

PRIZES: Highest Hand
Most questions answered correctly
Best overall time
Last but not least or the Pierced Arrow Radiator Award

The aliens were flying over Fairbanks studying life on this planet and they came to hold over a golf course where the best golfer in the VLNAACA was practicing. They decided to watch what this guy was doing and hid in the clouds with all their sensor devices on high. The golfer put a little white cylindrical object ( ball) on a holder in the ground and took out a stick from his bag, held it up over his head and then "WHAM" he wacked the ball and yelled "fore." The aliens looked at each other and wondered because they had just came from the high school and knew 1, 2 & 3 came first. They surmised that it must be a custom of some sort. They man watched the ball fall in amongst the trees, and he did what the aliens thought was a strange dance with hands raised and voice screaming words that the aliens knew were not in our dictionary (remember they had just come from the high school.) So, the man gets into this small motorized vehicle and whizzes over to the clump of trees. He chooses and puts back several of the sticks before taking the one with a big wedge shaped thing on the end. He moves the ball several inches from the nearest tree and hits it with the stick. It bounces off one of the other trees and hits the man in the side. He curses again and throws his stick so that it bounces and hits him in the head. The man dances and curses for awhile and then puts the ball on the edge of the grass, gets a fresh stick and whacks it towards the smooth grass. It lands in rather tall grass and the man takes forever it seems to find it. He talks to himself, drinks some kind of canned liquid from his bag, hiding it between swigs and looking around to see if anyone sees him. He mutters something about a chip shot and gets another club and "chips" the ball up in the air and into a water hole. The man jumps up and down but not in happiness, cursing, and waving his club. He gets to the waters edge and pulls a new ball out of his bag and drives it into the water. He gets yet another ball and takes a big swing, hitting the ball slightly underneath, causing it to fly over the water and into some sand just before the smooth grass. The man throws the stick into the water and yells as he looks up to the heavens. The aliens think they have been spotted and fly higher into the atmosphere watching their sensor screen for what the man will do next. The man gets to the sand, marches up to the ball and swings a stick sending sand everywhere. The man wipes his eyes and face with a wet towel from his bag and goes back to the ball. This time he hits it out of the sand and it lands on the smooth grass and rolls right into a hole with a stick and triangle shape material attached to the top. The man seems pleased but the one alien turns to the other and says "Hah, he thought he had trouble hitting that ball in the last few spots, wait until he tries to get it out of that hole."

FOR SALE

CAR COVER: fits sports car type vehicle, Corvette, T-Bird, etc. Like new condition $60.00 OBO co-worker of Bill Chace, contact Bill at 488-3805 for more details.

To put your item in for sale contact Sherry Camarata by the 20th of any month and it will be in the following newsletter. Call 488-4293 or email to camarata@santanet.com

CALENDAR OF UP COMING EVENTS

|          |                  |  |
|----------|------------------|--|
| Sept. 6  | Arctic Wheels    | Monderosa Run Fairbanks - Nenana - Fairbanks |
| Sept. 7  | 2:00 - 7:00 pm   | Poker Run and Cookout                        |
| Sept. 20 | 10:00 AM to Noon | Eielson Homecoming Parade                    |

OFFICERS

|                       |                 |  |
|-----------------------|-----------------|--|
| President:            | Jerry Roehm     | 488-1644                               |
| Vice President:       | Alan Monsma     | 458-0024                               |
| Secretary/Newsletter: | Sherry Camarata | 488-4293 / email Camarata@santanet.com |
| Treasurer:            | Ruth Hill       | 452-4510                               |
| Historian:            | Beccy Monsma    | 458-0024                               |

*Paul and Sherry Camarata
3427 Jeremy Lane
North Pole, Alaska 99705*