Antique Automobile Club of America

VLNAAC PEOPLE'S CHOICE WINNERS:

This year we expanded the categories of cars to be recognized by the public attending our annual car show this year from the single category of "People's Choice" to four categories. The categories and winners were:

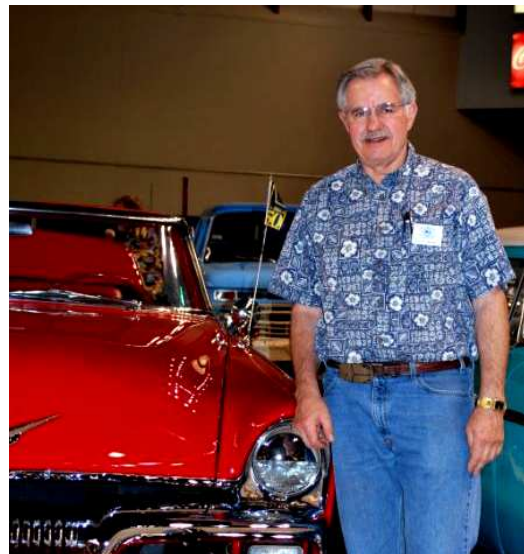

1. ANTIQUE (1930 and older) - 1925 Franklin Sedan owned by Rick and Jill Larrick,
2. VINTAGE (1931 -1950) - 1936 GMC Pickup Truck owned by Ron and Karine Dane,
3. CLASSIC (1951 and newer) - 1955 Plymouth Convertible owned by Scott and Linda Grundy, and
4. MODIFIED (altered significantly from original) - 1964 Ford Falcon Futura owned by Karmen Shoemaker.

Vintage category winner Ron Dane and the 1936 GMC Pickup Truck

Antique category winner Rick Larrick and the 1925 Franklin Sedan

Classic Category Winner Scott Grundy and the 1955 Plymouth Convertible

Modified category winner Karmen Shoemaker and the 1964 Ford Falcon Futura.

RAFFLE CAR WINNER:

The raffle car this year was a cute 1960 Ford Falcon station wagon that was restored by the club and was won by Peter Vredenburg. Peter owns Car Quest and has been a devoted sponsor for several of our club's events. Along with the car Peter received a complimentary membership for the year from VLNAAC and AACA.

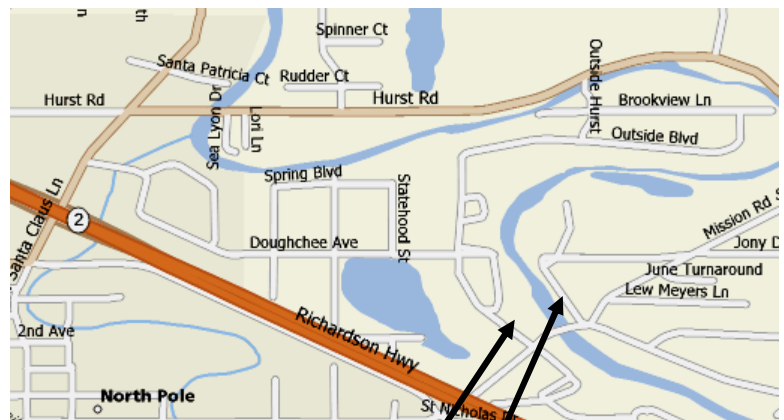

President Willy Vinton congratulates Peter Vredenburg on winning the raffle car.

Church Parking (if desired)

Note: If church parking is desired by enough members, we may take a collection to pay a guard to stay with them.

June 14 Poker Run picnic at Gary and Jill Nash's cabin on the Chena River

JUNE 14 POKER RUN:

It was a perfectly beautiful warm and sunshine day for the Poker Run. Seventeen cars and their drivers and passengers showed up for the event. Stops for drawing cards were at 10 mile Merchantile, 23 mile Valley Center, 40 mile Tors Campground and the final stop was the Nash cabin. A delicious picnic was provided by the club and its members. The best poker hand belonged to Joyce Chace for a first prize of $60. Second place prize went to John McCarthy for $40. Third place prize went to Wilma Vinton for $20.
